

<https://dictionary.cambridge.org/dictionary/english-chinese-traditional/>

Article 1:

Swedish IKEA store finds 50,000 forgotten face masks, gives them to local hospital

<https://www.reuters.com/article/us-health-coronavirus-ikea-masks/swedish-ikea-store-finds-50000-forgotten-face-masks-gives-them-to-local-hospital-idUSKBN2142YG>

5 words to look up in the dictionary:

- Stumble (verb)
- Stumble across sth (phrasal verb)
- Gather (verb)
- Gather dust (phrase)
- Donate (verb)

Question 1:

What is special about Sahlgrenska University Hospital?

Question 2:

Why did IKEA originally buy so many facemasks?

Question 3:

How many cases of coronavirus are there in Sweden, according to the article?

Article 2:

Creative, sustainable hotels: Airbnb to give away US$1 million for unique home ideas, like the Big Idaho Potato

<https://www.scmp.com/lifestyle/travel-leisure/article/3075392/creative-sustainable-hotels-airbnb-give-away-us1-million>

5 words to look up in the dictionary:

- Unique (adj)
- Fund (noun)
- Unconventional (adj)
- Feasible (adj)
- Hinder (verb)

Question 1:

When does the Air BnB competition close?

Question 2:

According to Air BnB, what kind of rentals are becoming more and more popular for tourists (paragraph 7)?

Question 3:

What project did MVRDV recently complete in Taiwan?

EXTRA QUESTION: At the bottom of the article there are five unique places to stay. Which would you most like to visit? Why?