

<https://dictionary.cambridge.org/dictionary/english-chinese-traditional/>

Article 1:

Coral Bleaching: What is it, how does it happen and how bad is it?

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/newsround/52048558>

5 words to look up in the dictionary:

- Coral (noun)
- Bleach (verb)
- Devastate (verb)
- Reef (noun)
- Heritage (noun)

Question 1:

How many mass coral bleaching have there been in the Great Barrier Reef in the last five years?

Question 2:

What is the name of a coral's hard, protective limestone skeleton?

Question 3:

According to the article, what fraction of the world's marine species live in coral reefs?

Article 2:

'Like a spiral UFO': world's longest animal discovered in Australian waters

<https://www.theguardian.com/environment/2020/apr/15/like-a-spiral-ufo-worlds-longest-animal-discovered-in-australian-waters>

5 words to look up in the dictionary:

- UFO (noun)
- Spiral (noun)
- Expedition (noun)
- Predator (noun)
- Clone (noun/ verb)

Question 1:

According to Nerida Wilson, what made the timing of the siphonophore discovery so surprising?

Question 2:

According to paragraph 7, how big is the siphonophore compared to a blue whale and a humpback whale?

Question 3:

According to the final paragraph, why was the team expecting to find new species in the Gascoyne Coast bioregion?

EXTRA QUESTION: Go to this link: <https://www.bustle.com/articles/113059-15-terrifying-things-in-the-ocean-because-jaws-has-nothing-on-these-scary-sea-creatures>

Which of these deep-sea creatures is the scariest? Why do you think so?