

<https://dictionary.cambridge.org/dictionary/english-chinese-traditional/>

Article 1:

TikTok: How creators are using TikTok to help others

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/newsround/52503270>

5 words to look up in the dictionary:

- Billion (noun)
- Lip-synch (verb/ noun)
- Prank (verb/ noun)
- Show off (phrasal verb)
- Algebra (noun)

Question 1:

How many times has the hashtag #helpingpeople been used over the last few weeks?

Question 2:

What are three phrases that Dr Luanne Sailors could teach you in American sign language?

Question 3:

Usually, how do people celebrate Ramadan?

Article 2:

China 'copycat' buildings: Government clamps down on foreign imitations

<https://www.bbc.com/news/world-asia-china-52585684>

5 words to look up in the dictionary:

- Clamp down on sth (phrasal verb)
- Alpine (adj)
- Plagiarize (verb)
- Copycat (noun/ verb/ adj)
- Shoddy (adj)

Question 1:

According to the new guidelines, what is the maximum size for new skyscrapers in China?

Question 2:

Which four examples are listed as places where it is 'especially important to ban plagiarism'?

Question 3:

According to the visitor to 'Thames Town' what is a benefit to having imitations of foreign buildings in China?

EXTRA QUESTION: What is your opinion on these kinds of buildings? Do you agree that they should be banned?