

<https://dictionary.cambridge.org/dictionary/english-chinese-traditional/>

Article 1:

Bees: How do they get plants to flower early?

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/newsround/52766736>

5 words to look up in the dictionary:

- Buzz (noun/ verb)
- Hibernate (verb)
- Bob (verb)
- Nibble (verb)
- Saliva (noun)

Question 1:

How do bees trick plants into producing flowers early?

Question 2:

What happened when the scientists tried to recreate the results by making holes in the leaves of flowers?

Question 3?

According to these scientists, what is special about the saliva of bees which creates this effect?

Article 2:

Rare white grizzly bear sighted in Canadian Rockies

<https://www.theguardian.com/world/2020/may/22/canada-rockies-white-grizzly-bear>

5 words to look up in the dictionary:

- Remote (adj)
- Stumble across/on/upon sth/sb (phrasal verb)
- Glimpse (verb)
- Nuzzle (verb)
- Elusive (adj)

Question 1:

What is the normal range of colouration for grizzly bears?

Question 2:

How long have local wildlife officials been aware of the white grizzly bear?

Question 3:

As coronavirus restrictions lift, what is Seth Cherry worried about?

EXTRA QUESTION: What would you do if you saw a rare grizzly bear like this?